

VGC Dress Code

On the Course and During Practice

- Appropriate golf attire will be worn always.
- Tailored pants, shorts, skirts or skorts are all acceptable. The minimum length for shorts, skirts or skorts is mid thigh. Men's "Polo-style" golf shirts must be tucked in. Button down shirts may be worn untucked provided they are evenly finished around the hem and designed to be worn untucked. Hoodies are not acceptable for men. Women's leggings are permitted, providing they are worn in conjunction with a dress, skirt or shorts. Women may wear a sleeveless shirt if it has a collar.
- Not permitted: blue jeans, garments with exterior cargo pockets if they are bulging or gusseted, tennis or athletic shorts, halter tops, tank tops - no midriff showing.
- Golfing footwear must be worn on the course - no sandals, flip flops or bare feet allowed. No dress socks permitted when wearing shorts.
- Golfing headwear: logos must be discreet and golf related. Hat will be worn facing forward.
- Juniors and children may wear non-golf specific clothing while on the practice areas or during Junior lessons, providing they are dressed in a way that is appropriate. They are required to follow the dress code if they are playing golf on the course.
- Members are responsible for their guests' dress.

VGC Dress Code

In the Clubhouse

- Appropriate golf, sports, casual or semi-formal attire are all acceptable in the Clubhouse.
- Men's shirts are to be tucked in at the waist, unless designed to be worn untucked.
- Logos must be discreet and golf related.
- Jeans are acceptable in the Clubhouse, but they cannot be frayed, dirty or ripped. Dress jeans are acceptable throughout the Clubhouse, unless different dress code is specified for a special event.
- No head-wear is permitted on the floor of the Clubhouse or in the serviced areas, with the exception of formal men's and women's hats.
- Athletic wear is acceptable in the locker rooms, while participating in athletic events, or in the casual dining areas during breakfast hours.
- Leather flip flops are acceptable throughout the Clubhouse. Rubber flip flops are unacceptable unless designed to be a dress sandal.

